ARTIST nyoka bittschwan

biography

Nyoka Bittschwan, a brilliantly gifted artist in all mediums including illustration, photography, pottery, and sculptor; painting is by far her strongest talent. Nyoka was born in Tennessee in 1983 and moved to Ontario, Canada at the age of 6. She then moved to Vancouver, British Columbia where she attended Emily Carr Institute of Art and Design and graduated with a BFA in 2007.

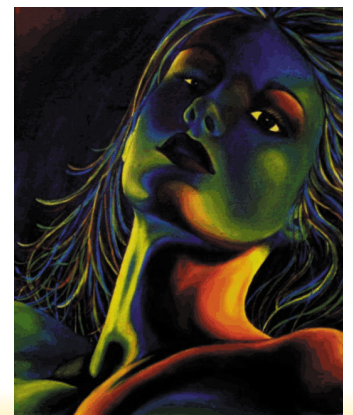

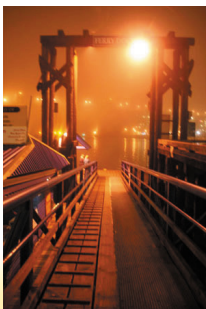

Paradoxically, art school had caused Nyoka to put aside her passion for painting to spend her time exploring other mediums such as photography, ceramics, and printmaking. Currently Nyoka is residing in Nelson British Columbia where she has been spending her time creating a body of work that simply represents a return to her love for painting. Nyoka is known for her powerful, larger than life portraits of bohemian icons as well as her playfully colourful paintings inspired by nature.

Nyoka draws influence and inspiration from everything around her. She attempts to create images that like-minded individuals will not only recognize, but also relate to, and thus enjoy.

Nyoka's work can be viewed at the Norman Felix Gallery or online at www.normanfelix.com
